

FOIL GERMAN-IRISH PLOT

GEN. OBREGON TO MEET SCOTT IN 'WAR' PARLEY

Carranza Aid and Army Chief Will Discuss Villa Hunt.

MEXICAN WAR SUMMARY

Gen. Scott, chief of staff, to meet Gen. Obregon, Carranza minister, in "war" parley on the border.

Gen. Pershing sent orders by field post to General Obregon, Carranza minister, to meet him at Colonia Dublan, near Casas Grandes.

Another American aeroplane crashed near Chihuahua and one of airmen slightly injured.

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Further developments in the pursuit of Villa and the relations between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico now await personal discussion of these subjects by the senior military advisers of the two governments.

A conference between Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the American army, and Gen. Alvaro Obregon, minister of war of the de facto government, was arranged late today to take place probably in Juarez.

OBREGON ON WAY NORTH

Gen. Scott is now in San Antonio, Tex., and Gen. Obregon is thought to be already on his way north from Mexico City. They may meet tomorrow or next day.

Announcement that Gen. Carranza had agreed to the conference was made by Eliseo Arrendondo, Mexican ambassador-designate, who paid a second visit to Secretary Lansing today to communicate the fact. Secretary Baker was promptly informed and the information transmitted to Gen. Scott.

CARRANZA HESITATES

The meeting was suggested first after Gen. Scott had started to the border on his mission which resulted in the authorization for the reduplication of the American troops in Mexico now being worked out by Gen. Funston. The plan was favored by both war and state department officials and Special Agent Rodgers asked to present it to Gen. Carranza. Because of the latter's alleged jealousy of his war minister some officers doubted that the conference could be arranged. The subject apparently provoked considerable discussion in Mexico City before it was decided Gen. Obregon should go to the border.

Gen. Scott is fully advised as to the attitude of the administration toward Mexico in general and toward the question of withdrawal of the troops now in pursuit of Villa in particular. He will be able to present to Gen. Obregon the reasons behind every move that has been made and give him personal assurances that President Wilson and his advisers have no thought of doing anything more than protect American interests along the border from Mexican bandit operations.

EXPECT GOOD RESULTS

Officials here are hopeful of favorable results, inasmuch as the United States already has halted its southward march rather than provoke a useless clash with Mexican civilians or irresponsible elements of the Carranza military forces.

It is expected Gen. Obregon will be able to throw much light on the problems that face the de facto government. Pending the forthcoming conference any effect it may have on the situation Gen. Funston will carry out his plan for restricting his lines in Mexico to make the position of his troops more secure for a stay of any length.

Secretary Baker reiterated today that his authorization under which he acted as Gen. Funston's full discretion. It is a general rather than a fully worked out plan that has been approved. The secretary estimated that he might not be informed as to just what points were chosen for assembling the forces until after the move movements had been ordered.

CARRANZA URGES U. S. REPLY

Further developments today included a request from Gen. Carranza that an early move be made to his note of April 13 requesting that American troops be withdrawn from Mexico. This was learned in connection with the fact that

Gus Penman, Asylum Free, Hides Here?

A team of four horses drawing a heavy farm buggy galloped into Clearing last night under the sting of a whip applied by the driver.

As the gray horse, blowing hard and showing the signs of a long, hard drive, entered the little village from the west, persons along the street watched it.

At West Sixty-third street and South Fifty-sixth avenue the fagged animal staggered and slowed down despite the lash, unable to go farther.

It's Gus Penman!

The driver, throwing the reins aside, leaped out of the buggy, ran down the road, and disappeared. He was dressed in dark clothing, what appeared to be overalls and a jumper.

The Englewood police, when informed of the incident and given a description of the man, said:

"It's Gus Penman."

Penman was sentenced to the Kankakee state asylum for the insane a year ago for murder. He had killed a lifelong friend and chum at Champaign, Ill., to get possession of the latter's coveted racing automobile.

Four Escaped Asylum.

Friday night he and four companions escaped from the asylum in a remarkable delivery by prying loose brick from the wall.

The police believe if the man in Clearing was Penman that he probably had hidden in the vicinity of the asylum and yesterday had stolen the rig, that of a farmer, and had driven the fifty-six miles to Chicago.

The horse and buggy are being held at the Englewood station awaiting an owner. The buggy bears the initials "A. M. R."

SCARLET FEVER APPEARS AGAIN ON MIDWAY CAMPUS

Quarantine Ordered in Woman's Dormitory When Graduate Student Is Removed to Hospital.

A third scarlet fever quarantine of University of Chicago co-eds was ordered yesterday afternoon. Forty girls in Greenwood hall, one of the university's dormitories, are affected.

Miss Ethel Mott of Kansas City, a graduate student, was removed from Greenwood hall in the morning to Durand hospital.

A few weeks ago Foster hall was quarantined twice and Miss Margaret Green's illness ended fatally.

The Greenwood women took the quarantine as rather a lark yesterday. In the afternoon they were out in force on the grounds to the north of the hall, putting their spare time to good use in improving their golf strokes on an improvised two hole "course," in limbering up their tennis service against the side of the building, and in playing "high low."

Those girls who live in Chicago were allowed to go to their homes. If no other case of fever develops the hall will remain under quarantine for a week.

AERO RAIDER 'BLOWS UP' BIG LOOP BUILDINGS

De Lloyd Thompson Drops Bombs Until Chased by Girl Defender.

An "enemy" aeroplane, raining bombs on Chicago last night, speculatively destroyed the postoffice, the Northwestern station, the Blackstone hotel, and a couple of department stores in the south end of the loop.

At the conclusion of the raid the "enemy" machine was driven off by a defense aeroplane. The crowds, theoretically, were in a panic until the invading machine, after executing a number of fanciful evolutions emboldened against the sky in fireworks, set off to the south at a tremendous velocity.

MAN VERSUS WOMAN

The "enemy" aeroplane was driven by De Lloyd Thompson, flying as a demonstrator agent of the National Security league. The defense machine was guided by Miss Ruth Law, whose brilliantly illuminated biplane cast a shower of light over Grant Park and made the advance of the "enemy" impossible.

Thompson arose from the south end of Grant park at 8 o'clock. He worked rapidly and after a point several thousand feet in the air was officially "sighted." The appearance of the invading machine was a signal for applause instead of such panic as might be expected at the advance of a death dealing monster hovering over the millions of dollars in property in the loop and the thousands of human beings that stood aspe.

CROWDS MOVED AT SIGHT

Michigan avenue was a blaze of light from Randolph street to the end of Grant park. The thoroughfare was flanked by automobiles. The streaming illumination of the shop fronts along the whole distance was an attraction for spectators, and the usual gloomy void of Grant park was packed with persons waiting to see the effect of real warfare upon the city.

But the advance of the aerial death did not send home the lesson of defense as thoroughly as in Europe, where real explosives are sent to demolish life and property.

The crowds saw and were impressed with the awful beauty of the evolutions in the air. The comelike swirlings in air of the blazing aeroplanes caught the circus fancy of the crowds.

BOMBS IN RAILWAY DEPOT

Thompson whirled his machine about and like a shot went for the middle and western portion of the loop. Except to those who watched from the tops of boulevard skyscrapers he was invisible.

At the Northwestern station two bombs, weighing one and one-half pounds, were dropped. Later Thompson said the aim was good and the exhibition bombs fell true on the roof of the building.

A leap straight into the upper air and the "enemy" machine darted back over the loop, and, pausing for the smallest fraction of a minute, dropped two more of the speculatively deadly bombs on the postoffice.

A short turn and two more bombs were loosed as the biplane passed over the department stores that stand in the lower end of the loop.

The purpose of the attack being to achieve the greatest possible damage in the smallest possible time, Thompson directed his machine south and eastward and, passing the Blackstones, dropped two more bombs. He set out on his raid with eight bombs. They had been distributed in spots wherein the widest damage would result and the work of the invader was done for the night.

GIRL TO THE DEFENSE

It was at this point that the trail of the invader was taken up by Miss Law, who sought to ward off the night air attack. The brightly illuminated buildings made the loop difficult as any target for Thompson. It was equally a disturbing factor in the defense.

RAIDING CHICAGO FROM THE SKIES

De Lloyd Thompson demonstrating the tactics of an enemy aeroplane. The photograph was taken from Grant park opposite the interval between the Blackstone and Congress hotels. The Blackstones may be seen in the left and the Transportation building in the background. The tangle of white streaks is the blazing wake of the aviator caused by the sparks from noncombustible fireworks as the machine performed loops and spirals just before the end of the "raid." The Tribune photographer allowed an exposure of more than a minute to give time for the completion of the evolutions.

LATEST NEWS OF EUROPEAN WAR

PARIS, April 24.—After hearings lasting continuously for more than three weeks the Paris Permanent court martial has found the charges proved against forty-three of the forty-seven persons accused in the fraudulent medical exemptions case. The principal figure in the case is Dr. Lombard, who has conducted for months a regular traffic in false certificates enabling soldiers to procure their discharge from the army as unfit, for which he demanded and obtained substantial sums. The court sentenced Dr. Lombard to ten years of hard labor and a fine of 300 francs.

Others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from six months to five years or to pay fines ranging from 100 to 10,000 francs.

LONDON, April 24.—The king of Roumania has given 1,250,000 francs for distribution among the population of Bucharest who are suffering from the high price of food, according to Reuter's Bucharest correspondent.

Germany Takes Gloomy Outlook on Sea Dispute

Ready to Make Concessions, but Not Give Up Submarine War.

LONDON, April 24.—Two German submarines today stopped the Dutch steamship Berkelstroom, bound from Amsterdam, and gave the crew of twenty-three men fifteen minutes to leave the ship. They then sank it by gunfire. The crew were rescued by a British vessel and landed in England.

The British steamship Parisiana of 4,763 tons gross has been sunk. The crew of the vessel was landed yesterday.

(By the Associated Press.)

BERLIN, April 24.—The outcome of the present crisis depends on what President Wilson and the American government want. The general view of the present situation as gleaned from conversations with a number of persons close to official circles is about as follows:

If President Wilson and the American government are arguing that earlier concessions by Germany have not been adhered to and insist that the submarine campaign be conducted without deviation within the limits of German assurances and pledges in former notes, then a settlement probably can be arranged, notwithstanding what is considered the "sharp and unfriendly tone" of the American note. The pledges probably can be restated if need be and definitely reformulated so that there can be no possibility of error or question of responsibility.

If, however, the United States insists on further limitation of the submarine war against commerce, then there appears to be little chance of agreement for a satisfactory settlement and it is considered that a breach of diplomatic relations, if it should come, would in all probability be only a temporary status and would soon develop into an actual state of war.

This view is not official or authoritative but represents the opinion of persons who are in a position to be well informed. These persons carefully refrained from making definite or authoritative predictions, and specified that they were voicing only their own opinions; but these may possibly be straws showing which way the wind is blowing.

The request of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg for a conference with Ambassador Gerard is thought to have been inspired by the desire of the chancellor to find out what President Wilson's intentions actually are.

BULLETIN

LONDON, April 24.—A dispatch from Dublin says that an excursion train was about to leave for Maryborough tonight when it was found that the telegraph was out of commission.

A man who was sent to investigate found that a telegraph pole had been felled across the railroad track. He began to remove the pole, when shots were fired at him.

An engine and a carload of police were sent to the scene, but were suddenly halted by unbedded rails which had been removed.

(By Cable to The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, April 24.—An attempt to stir up a revolution in Ireland was nipped when a German auxiliary cruiser, armed by a strong force of German sailors and loaded with vast stores of rifles and ammunition, was sunk off the coast of Ireland by British patrol craft, presumably last Thursday night.

Sir Roger Casement, one of the leaders in the Irish home rule struggle, who has been in Germany since the early part of the war, was arrested, an admiralty bulletin tonight stated, "while attempting to land arms in Ireland." A number of other prisoners were taken.

TROOPS MAY HAVE LANDED.

From the brief bulletin issued late tonight by the admiralty it is not clear whether the German auxiliary cruiser actually had begun to land troops and arms and ammunition or whether it was sunk off the coast before it could approach shore. The statement follows:

"During the period between the afternoon of April 20 and the afternoon of April 21 an attempt to land arms and ammunition in Ireland was made by a vessel under the guise of a neutral merchant ship, but which in reality was a German auxiliary in conjunction with a German submarine.

The auxiliary was sunk and a number of prisoners were made, among whom was Sir Roger Casement.

PRICE PLACED ON HEAD.

The news of the arrest of Sir Roger, on whom, according to his own story, told in Germany a year ago, the British government has set a price of $25,000, caused the greatest sensation throughout England. The reason for the absence of details, it is believed, is the endeavor of the government to refrain from giving any encouragement to rebellious movements secretly on foot in Ireland.

Curiously enough, it develops, there recently came a dispatch from Copenhagen saying that Sir Roger Casement had been arrested in Germany. No details were given concerning his alleged arrest. The hint was made in official quarters

THREE ZEPPELINS IN ENGLISH RAID DROP FIRE BOMBS

Make Short Visit to Eastern
Coast—Italian Pilots Kill
Nine Triest Civilians.

LONDON, April 25, 2 a. m.—Three Zeppelins visited the eastern coast last night, dropping incendiary bombs, according to the official announcement.

The conditions were ideal for the Zeppelin raiders. The night was dark and the atmosphere clear.

The raiders appeared at about the customary hour and seemed a little uncertain as to their location, as the early reports showed that only incendiary bombs were being dropped.

Airship Over Dover.
A hostile aeroplane appeared over Dover yesterday morning and was attacked by British guns. It was driven off and dropped no bombs. The following official statement was issued:

At 11:45 yesterday a hostile aeroplane appeared over Dover from the east. It circled over the town at a height estimated at 6,000 feet.

Anti-aircraft guns at once came into action. The hostile machine was driven off. No bombs were dropped.

Triest Raid; Reprisals.
BERLIN, April 24, by wireless to Sayville.—The Austrian city of Triest has been added by a squadron of seven Italian aeroplanes which dropped bombs, killed nine persons, wounded five, and destroyed a monastery.

The raid is reported in the following official communication issued at Vienna under date of April 22:

Seven Italian aeroplanes dropped twenty-five bombs on Triest yesterday afternoon, killing nine civilians, of whom five were children, and wounding five other persons. The Salsiana monastery, in the chapel of which 40 children were attending divine service, was destroyed. By this attack the enemy forfeited every right to have his towns spared.

On the western front the British office reported the following air action:
A British biplane was put out of action after an aerial engagement east of Arras. Its occupants, consisting of officers, were captured.

Paris Aviation Report.
PARIS, April 24.—The war office tonight gave out the following report on operations on the western front:

In Belgium, during the day of April 24 and the night of April 23-24, French aerial squadrons bombarded on two different occasions the railroad station at Wygwe, to the east of the forest of Houthulst. On the first occasion thirty and on the second eighteen shells of large caliber were thrown down by our aviators, and many of the missiles reached their objective. All our aeroplanes returned unscathed.

Last night our aerial squadrons carried out several bombing operations. Twenty-one shells and eight incendiary bombs were dropped on the railway station at Longueon, five miles from the station at Spa, twenty shells on bivouacs east of Dun, and thirty-two shells on bivouacs in the region of Montfaucon and the station at Neufville.

Russian War Report.
PETERSBURG, April 24.—The war office tonight gave out the following report on operations:

Enemy aeroplanes threw bombs on Drinsk. Our aircraft threw thirteen bombs on the station southeast of Friedrichstadt. On the remainder of the front, there was only an exchange of fire.

Eyeless German U-Boats
FIRE BY SOUND ALONE?
Submarines Abandon Periscopes
and Burn Reports Says This Accounts for Lack of Proof.

BERNE, April 22 (delayed).—German submarines have abandoned the periscope in most instances and are now shooting without looking, according to reports current in Bern. The torpedoes are now fired by sound alone.

During the last twenty sinkings in British waters no one has seen a submarine, and in only a few cases has the white wake of the torpedo been observed. If the periscopeless submarine is a success, the torpedoes of the future will never again be able to say "I saw the trail of the periscope in the water."

The new periscopeless submarine, as it is described in Switzerland, has a great steel disk for an ear, on either side of the hull. Telephone receivers connected with these disks lead to the ears of the officer, and the approach of a ship is heard with unmistakable definiteness.

Swiss Ministerial Party Wins.
MADRID, Via Paris, April 24.—In the general elections held throughout Spain to reform the executive section of the house, 115 members of the ministerial party were returned and many of the members of the various groups of the opposition.

AUSTRIAN RAIN OF SHELLS
WINS AN ITALIAN TRENCH.
Reputed as All Other Points During General Attack on the Carso, Some Officially Reports.

ROME, April 24.—The official communication from general headquarters on Austrian operations issued today reads:

In the upper Cordevole, we repulsed new and persistent enemy attacks against the crest of Col di Lana.

At the summit of Seston, on the Drave, we completed the occupation of Peseo della Sentinella, 2,717 meters above the sea level, and took a dozen prisoners, one machine gun, arms and ammunition.

On the Carso, the enemy artillery yesterday poured gusts of fire from guns of all calibers on the trenches we had conquered east of Sels, and captured a small portion of a trench which was greatly exposed to the enemy fire.

In the evening the enemy renewed the attack in force against the trenches in the south valley, but was again vigorously repulsed.

Austrian War Report.
BERLIN, April 24.—[By Wireless to Sayville.]—An official statement issued at the Austro-Hungarian army headquarters under date of April 20, says:

In the Sogane sector the enemy attacked our newly conquered positions without success.

BRITISH PUSHING ONWARD
IN GERMAN EAST AFRICA.
Occupation of Town of Kondoa Shows How Rapidly They Are Crossing the Country.

LONDON, April 24.—Continuing their advance in German East Africa, the British expeditionary forces have occupied the town of Kondoa, in the district of Irangi. Prisoners were taken and a considerable number of casualties inflicted on the German forces, which retired in the direction of the Central railway.

Kondoa is about thirty-five miles south of Umbogochi, occupation of which was reported Saturday. This is the farthest point in the interior which has been reached by the British expedition, which apparently is being pushed forward rapidly.

WHAT DOES A-R-M-Y SPELL?
Lieut. F. R. Kenney, in charge of the Chicago recruiting stations, has written and had printed these rhymes:

A is for America—yes it is to attend her.
B is for right and our republic over all.
C is for military and men trained to defend her.
Y is for you—will you answer her call?

KEWANEE
Feeding coal to some boilers is just about as useless and costly as shoveling it into the alley—because most boilers waste about one-third of their fuel up the stack. And this is what causes smoke.

A Kewanee Smokeless Boiler burns any soft coal (including the cheap run of mine Illinois or Indiana coals) so perfectly that none of it is wasted. The saving is from 20 to 30 per cent—often more.

STATE AUDITOR JAMES J. BRADY WEDS MISS KOCH

Illinois Official, Sued by Rejected Wife for $50,000, Takes New Bride.

James J. Brady, state auditor, opened another chapter in his eventful marital career yesterday. He was married in St. Petersburg, Fla., to Miss Katharine Koch, who has been employed as a stenographer in his office.

Miss Koch was a much discussed figure in Brady's affairs shortly after Mrs. Mary Quinn's death. She had been charged with a $50,000 breach of promise suit against the auditor in 1914, charging that he had failed to reward her as he had agreed on finding that their marriage was not binding because Mrs. Brady had been divorced within a year.

Brady Unwed.
Through the tumult that followed—the first Mrs. Brady made sensational charges of favoritism and mismanagement in the auditor's office—Brady pursued the even tenor of his way calmly in Springfield and was seen so frequently in Miss Koch's company as to occasion a good deal of comment.

Miss Koch, then working in the office of the state treasurer, refused to be disturbed by the gossip, declaring that Brady "had the blues" and needed friendship.

First Case Settled.
The first Mrs. Brady, who came to be known as the auditor's "Michigan wife," settled her suit out of court in April of last year. The amount she received was never made public. She had charged that Brady was urged to "get rid of her for political reasons" and named a number of state officials in the interviews she gave out freely.

A month after the settlement of her suit her original marriage to Brady was annulled by Judge Walker in the Circuit court.

The new Mrs. Brady is a daughter of Mrs. Maria Koch, a widow of Springfield. The Rev. Father J. J. Wallace, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church in St. Petersburg, performed the ceremony, following which Auditor and Mrs. Brady departed by boat for Tampa. They will visit at St. Augustine and other Florida points and then go by boat to New York City, stopping at Baltimore and other points en route.

NEW ARMY AIRSHIP SHOWS
SPEED OF 100 MILES HOUR.
Test at Newport News Indicates Craft Can Climb at Rate of 1,000 Feet a Minute.

Newport News, Va., April 24.—The J. N-4, a two-passenger twin motor biplane of a new type especially adapted for military purposes, was tested at the Atlantic coast aeronautical station here today and was said by school officials to have met all requirements. United States army aviation officers witnessed the test.

The J. N-4 makes a speed of 100 miles an hour and climbs 1,000 feet a minute. Carrying seven men, the giant flying boat H-7 was given its first thorough tryout today. The machine made two flights, one of thirty and one of twenty minutes. The results of the tests were declared entirely satisfactory.

Official tests of the military tractor R-2 model, eight of which were recently bought by the war department for use in Mexico, were completed today, and army experts were well pleased. The tests today were made by Victor Carlstrom, carrying one passenger and 150 pounds load. The test showed:

High speed, 62 miles an hour; low speed, 41.3 miles an hour; climb, 5,000 feet in ten minutes; fuel capacity, four hours at high speed.

REBELS IN INDIA KILL TWO.
Rind Tribesmen Slay Acting Political Agent and Officer of Reserve Corps.

LONDON, April 24.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Simla, India, says:

"Mr. Hughes, acting political agent and commander of the Merkan Levy corps, and Second Lieutenant Horat, a reserve officer, recently attached to the corps, were shot dead at Mand by two Rind tribesmen. Levies promptly killed the two assassins."

W. O. GANDY, LAND MAN.
TAKEN ON FRAUD CHARGE.
Allegations of fraud by mail in the affairs of W. O. Gandy, president of the Wachula Development company, in the sale of Florida lands resulted in the arrest of Gandy in the Chicago Athletic association yesterday.

Gandy is said to have misrepresented the condition of the soil exploited by his concern, the needs of irrigation and drainage, and to have stated that the land was unincumbered.

Information leading to his arrest was furnished by H. L. Phillips, district attorney for the southern district of Florida.

NAVY PLANS MAY BE SPEEDED UP

Compromise Likely to Call for Six Big Ships as First Year's Quota.

DRAFT OF BILL READY.

Washington, D. C., April 24.—A draft of the naval appropriation bill, the second of the administration's preparedness measures, was reported by a subcommittee today to the house naval committee, which next Thursday will begin consideration of the construction section.

Present indications are that the proposed five year building program will be approved, but that the first year's allotment of new ships will be increased from two dreadnaughts and two battle cruisers, as proposed by Secretary Daniels, to two dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers.

Pass Over Building Program.
The measure as submitted by the appropriations subcommittee carries a total of $217,000,000 for the coming year, on the basis of the secretary's recommendation of four capital ships. This is an increase of $70,000,000 over last year's figure.

The subcommittee did not attempt to pass on the building program, that task always being left to the full committee. If two more battle cruisers are added, it will increase the total appropriation about $30,000,000 as the first year's provision for these ships.

Agree on Six Big Ships.
The subcommittee presented a memorandum summarizing the recommendations of various naval officers who were examined on the question of the building program. They are so much at variance that the committee virtually would be forced to accept the secretary's plan had not many of the Republican members and some of the Democrats already announced their intention of supporting a compromise program of six capital ships.

The bill framed by the subcommittee grants virtually all of the recommendations made by Secretary Daniels.

Army Bill Delayed in House.
Action on the army preparedness bill was further delayed this afternoon when a rule reported by the house committee on rules to send the army bill to conference was knocked out by Speaker Clark on a point of order raised by Republican Leader Mann. It is expected that Democratic members will report another rule tomorrow morning.

NEW ARMY AIRSHIP SHOWS
SPEED OF 100 MILES HOUR.
Test at Newport News Indicates Craft Can Climb at Rate of 1,000 Feet a Minute.

Newport News, Va., April 24.—The J. N-4, a two-passenger twin motor biplane of a new type especially adapted for military purposes, was tested at the Atlantic coast aeronautical station here today and was said by school officials to have met all requirements. United States army aviation officers witnessed the test.

The J. N-4 makes a speed of 100 miles an hour and climbs 1,000 feet a minute. Carrying seven men, the giant flying boat H-7 was given its first thorough tryout today. The machine made two flights, one of thirty and one of twenty minutes. The results of the tests were declared entirely satisfactory.

Official tests of the military tractor R-2 model, eight of which were recently bought by the war department for use in Mexico, were completed today, and army experts were well pleased. The tests today were made by Victor Carlstrom, carrying one passenger and 150 pounds load. The test showed:

High speed, 62 miles an hour; low speed, 41.3 miles an hour; climb, 5,000 feet in ten minutes; fuel capacity, four hours at high speed.

Rind Tribesmen Slay Acting Political Agent and Officer of Reserve Corps.

LONDON, April 24.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Simla, India, says:

"Mr. Hughes, acting political agent and commander of the Merkan Levy corps, and Second Lieutenant Horat, a reserve officer, recently attached to the corps, were shot dead at Mand by two Rind tribesmen. Levies promptly killed the two assassins."

W. O. GANDY, LAND MAN.
TAKEN ON FRAUD CHARGE.
Allegations of fraud by mail in the affairs of W. O. Gandy, president of the Wachula Development company, in the sale of Florida lands resulted in the arrest of Gandy in the Chicago Athletic association yesterday.

Gandy is said to have misrepresented the condition of the soil exploited by his concern, the needs of irrigation and drainage, and to have stated that the land was unincumbered.

Information leading to his arrest was furnished by H. L. Phillips, district attorney for the southern district of Florida.

DENEEN MAY AID LOGAN HAY FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Springfield Man; Big Figure in the Senate, Looms as Lowden Foe.

Logan Hay of Springfield loomed big on the Republican horizon of Illinois yesterday. He became a probable starter for the nomination for governor following the decision of the Deneen men to tail most everything they know about alleged crooked political deals in Illinois in the last twenty years.

Hay, it was considered likely last night, will top the Deneen slate, not as a Deneen man, but as the candidate the Deneen folk would consider the best fitted to tear into the Thompson-Lowden-Brundage coalition in Chicago.

Big Man in Senate.
During the eight years of the Deneen regime at Springfield Hay served in the state senate. He was considered about the biggest and strongest man in the upper house during the civil war period. While remaining a Republican, he supported most all the Progressive party measures, was the central figure in bringing about the state senate inquiry into the Lormer election and originated the movement that resulted in the legislative reference bureau and the consolidation of overlapping bureaus.

He is rated a millionaire, is an extensive land owner and practical farmer, banker, lawyer, and heavy real estate owner in Springfield. His residence is one of the show places of the state capital. The family traditions are interwoven with those of the Lincoln, Logan and their intimates of the civil war period. The former senator has been mentioned as a possible starter for the governorship, but not until yesterday, following the publication in this Tribune of the program of reprisal to be followed by the Deneen forces, was Hay's name considered seriously.

County Committee Meets.
These observations followed the meeting of the Cook county committee during the day at the Hotel La Salle, which again resulted in a deadlock by agreement and an adjournment to Thursday afternoon. Both the Brundage and Deneen spokesmen said they didn't think it worth while to try to do anything until they heard directly from the mayor, as they didn't think his men on the committee had received their last instructions.

The announcement of Deneen's plan of campaign—twenty years of inside stuff—was about the sole topic of conversation at the convention.

Mr. Brundage didn't care to discuss the matter for publication, except to suggest that the former governor was trying to induce the local situation and keep his men from leaving him. He said that so far the "inside stuff" was nothing to expose and that Mr. Deneen was entirely at liberty to shoot as soon as he got ready.

"Besides," said Mr. Brundage, "this is not the time to talk of disrupting things. What we all want is harmony and a united party."

The Democratic county committee met with Mr. Sullivan at the Hotel Sherman late in the day and practically decided on the judicial slate that will be named in today's convention.

COUNCIL RULES TO BE CHANGED

Slate Makers to Recommend
Deferring Action on Mayor's Appointments.

CURB EXTRA SESSIONS.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
St. Augustine, Fla., April 24.—[Special.]—Some tanned and some sunburned, six Chicago aldermen left here, homeward bound, tonight, bearing with them the committee slate for the new city council. The party will reach Chicago Wednesday morning.

Two important amendments in the council rules were made today. Under the first new rule all appointments by the mayor that require council confirmation must be deferred at least one week and until the next regular meeting if it is more than a week after the day they are sent to the council. This subject of confirming the mayor's appointments was one of the first on which Mayor Thompson and his followers split with the independent Republicans in the council.

Curb on Special Meetings.
The second new rule provides that the signatures of seven aldermen shall be required on the call for a special council meeting. This provision grew out of the administration's eleventh hour effort three weeks ago to upset the Municipal Voters' league plan of nonpartisan organization of the council. The new rule calls for the signatures of only three members for a special call.

A third change in the rules was made. This prohibits the passage of special council orders for more than two day's session. Chairman Robert also was authorized to draft the resolution calling on Mayor Thompson to reappoint the present members of the special committee on gas litigation.

One Change in the Slate.
The one change in the slate was made when it was found both Byrne and Hrubec of the Twenty-ninth ward appeared on the roster of the Judiciary committee. Hickey was taken off the school committee and placed on the Judiciary list, and Byrne was put on the school list.

Scrutiny of the list fails to show any substantial promotions for more than a few of the men already in the council. Among the Republicans, Wallace is promoted from street elevation to schools. Blaha goes from schools to local industries, and Tyden goes from streets and alleys to compensation. McCormick leaves buildings and schools and goes to Judiciary and harbors. Among the Democrats, Doyle goes to local transportation, McNichols to railway terminals, and Zwiefka to gas, oil, and electric lights.

ROOSEVELT BAY STATE TEST
Voters to Decide Today if G. O. P. Delegates Will Be Instructed for Former President.

Boston, Mass., April 24.—Whether the Massachusetts delegation to the Republican national convention shall be committed to Col. Theodore Roosevelt as the party candidate for president is the question of principal interest to be decided by the presidential primaries tomorrow. The two rival groups, one "unpledged" for and against any candidate, the other committed to a stated preference for Col. Roosevelt, closed their campaigns tonight. The former president has refused to sanction the campaign in his behalf.

Against Factory Inspector.
Corporation Counsel Etelson yesterday ruled State Factory Inspector Oscar P. Nelson must pay the vehicle tax for the automobile operated by his department. Mr. Nelson has contended the automobile was property of the state of Illinois, and hence, by the terms of the constitution, exempt from taxation.

LEWIS MAY FIGHT APPOINTMENT OF DIXON WILLIAMS

Decision Will Be Made After Senator Confers with the President on Thursday.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., April 24.—[Special.]—Senator Lewis of Illinois will ask the senate to reject the nomination of Dixon C. Williams for postmaster at Chicago unless between now and Thursday morning, when he calls on President Wilson to discuss the appointment, both Gov. Deneen and former Mayor Harrison ask him to have the appointment confirmed.

On returning from Atlanta, Ga., today Senator Lewis gave out a formal statement in which he alleged that Postmaster General Burleson had misrepresented his position with respect to the Chicago postmaster to the president, and had persuaded Mr. Wilson to nominate Williams on the understanding that the nomination would be acceptable not only to Senator Lewis but to Gov. Deneen and former Mayor Harrison.

Invites Lewis to Call.
Senator Lewis also stated that Mr. Burleson consistently opposed the selection of any German-American resident of Chicago for the office.

As soon as President Wilson heard of Senator Lewis' objection he telephoned the senator and asked him to call at the White House Thursday for a conference on the appointment. After receiving the message, Senator Lewis said: "I shall not say definitely before Thursday what course I shall follow, as it would be discourteous to the president to announce what I shall do before he has a chance to make his reasons for appointing Mr. Williams known. On Thursday, however, I shall make such an announcement."

Spurned German-Americans.
It became known during the day that on April 23 Mr. Burleson rejected all of the German-American candidates who had the backing of Senator Lewis, Gov. Deneen, and former Mayor Harrison for the office and urged the president to name some other candidate. This was made known to Senator Lewis, who was in Philadelphia at the time and he wired the president he could not consent to Mr. Burleson's scheme until the postmaster general produced some valid objection to candidates submitted.

CUMMINS' LEAD NOW 1,300
OVER FORD IN NEBRASKA.
Republican Delegation Will Cast Majority of Votes for Hughes at Chicago, However.

Omaha, Neb., April 24.—With the count of the vote cast at the state preferential primary completed, Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa is leading Henry Ford of Detroit for the Republican presidential nomination by 1,300 votes.

The Republican delegation to the national convention, it is said, will cast a majority of votes for Justice Charles E. Hughes for president. Twelve of the sixteen delegates, the Omaha Bee says, are bound by written pledges to vote for Hughes.

Democratic delegates at large to the national convention will be about equally divided between supporters of W. J. Bryan and President Wilson, whose preparedness for war plans Mr. Bryan opposes.

M'COMBS QUILTS AS PARTY CHIEF

Wilson Accepts Resignation, to Take Effect After
St. Louis Convention.

ENDS LONG FRICTION.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., April 24.—[Special.]—The long threatened break between President Wilson and William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee and manager of the president's pre-nomination campaign, came today when Mr. McCombs resigned the chairmanship of the national committee and the president accepted the resignation, to take effect after the St. Louis convention.

Since the fall of 1912 Wilson and McCombs have not been friends. Following the Baltimore convention, McCombs was taken ill and William G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the Democratic committee, was placed in charge of the Wilson campaign.

McAdoo Supplies McCombs.
McAdoo soon gained the confidence of Wilson and after the election supplanted McCombs in the president's affection, with the result that he was offered a cabinet position and McCombs an ambassadorship, which the president knew he could not afford to accept.

For a number of months, it has been reported in Washington that McAdoo, with the assistance of J. P. Tumulty, the president's private secretary, has been working to get rid of McCombs and to make Fred B. Lynch, national committeeman from Minnesota, chairman of the national committee for the campaign this year.

Saw Handwriting on Wall.
McCombs at one time announced that he would resign the place, but Tumulty issued a statement from the White House denying any effort was being made to supplant McCombs.

WILSON STARTS BACK FIRE ON MANN FOR CRITICISMS.
Democrats Begin Pamphlet Campaign to Defeat Illinoisan or Prevent Him Becoming Speaker

Washington, D. C., April 24.—[Special.]—The administration is attempting to start a back fire on Minority Leader Mann to prevent him from criticizing the president's foreign policy. It was learned on good authority that the Democratic campaign committee is planning to have printed 1,000,000 pamphlets concerning newspaper criticisms of Mr. Mann's attitude towards the president in his district and districts throughout the east where Republican congressional candidates have a good chance of being elected.

One purpose of this circulation is to beat Mann if possible. Another is to make it impossible for him to attain the speakership of the house in the event of Republican success at the polls in November in case he is elected to congress.

FAVORITE SONS ROILED BY ACTION OF FAIRBANKS.
Washington, D. C., April 24.—[Special.]—The activities of former Vice President Fairbanks and his political managers looking to the lining up of delegates to the Republican national convention already pledged to other candidates have aroused the ire of practically every favorite son in the race.

Col. Roosevelt, Rumor Says, Will

Coleman Du Pont, Leslie M. Shaw, and Col. Theodore Roosevelt are to tilt the Republican national bid in Chicago this week.

Col. Roosevelt, on his first visit to Chicago since the senatorial campaign of 1914, speaks Saturday evening as the guest of the Illinois Bar association. If his cold is sufficiently improved, he intends to reach Chicago on Friday for a conference. This conference, it was rumored yesterday, is to consider chiefly just what the German-American voters of Chicago think of the colonel. He desires, according to one informant, to receive first hand information of conditions before taking off all the muffers the following evening. Advice from the east are that this address by the colonel will be the latest word on Americanism and will be the clar-

DUNNE TO HEAR BIDDINGER CASE 'FRAMEUP' TODAY

Attorney Robert Cantwell Will Appear for Gov. Hatfield of West Virginia.

Attorney Robert E. Cantwell, representing Gov. Hatfield of West Virginia, will appear before Gov. Dunne at Springfield this morning to tell what he claims is the "real inside story" regarding the "frameup" now being made to extradite Guy Biddinger from New York to Illinois. He said yesterday he would tell the governor the charges brought up in Chicago against Biddinger constitute "a gigantic frameup, motivated by powerful interests in West Virginia to keep Biddinger out of that state in order to prevent his testifying against Attorney A. Leo Weil," who was instrumental in causing the extradition proceedings and who is under indictment in West Virginia on charges of bribery.

Included in the evidence Attorney Cantwell will lay before Gov. Dunne are an affidavit and a photograph. The affidavit was made by William Quinn, a Chicago saloonkeeper. Biddinger is charged with having lured Quinn to Chicago with pickpockets. Quinn denies this. The photograph, showing Biddinger standing beside a fish nearly as big as himself, is alleged to have been taken at Catalina Island, Cal., on May 1, 1911, the date he is alleged to have urged Quinn to take $1,000 to Wisconsin to bet on a prize fight so that pickpockets could rob him on the coast.

Clark Goes to New York.
As Mr. Cantwell was giving an indignant account of the alleged persecution of "Debonair Guy," who formerly was a detective on the Chicago police force, a clerk in the police bureau of records was departing for New York with a valise of records. These he will present at Biddinger's extradition hearing Wednesday morning before Gov. Whitman. It rests upon the decision of Mr. Whitman as to whether Biddinger will be brought back to Chicago.

"The interests of which Mr. Weil was the spokesman," said Mr. Cantwell, "wanted to obtain certain concessions in West Virginia. These could be obtained only through a special commission which would give the governor the direct control of the governor. The commission considered the proposition advanced by Mr. Weil and turned them down. Mr. Weil was present at the meeting and immediately afterward was told by two of the commissioners: 'We're sorry, but we had to vote it down. The governor ordered us to.'"

Faces Contempt Charge.
Mr. Weil made a public statement severely criticizing the governor. In West Virginia the chief state executive has extraordinary judicial powers. So Mr. Weil was promptly informed that if he would not back up a special commission which would be sent to jail on a contempt of court charge.

Mr. Weil got exceedingly busy. Soon the proposition was made to the two commissioners that if they would stand by the statements they had made—it was those that Mr. Weil's criticism was based—the interests Weil represented would pay them the amount of the salary coming to them for the remainder of their terms as commissioners. This amounted to $24,000 for one commissioner and $24,000 for the other. It was the understanding that payments would begin the moment they were forced to resign as the result of standing by Mr. Weil.

Dictograph Plot.
"But suppose doubt would be cast later on the motives of the commissioners in testifying in behalf of Weil? It was agreed that the main plot was evolved—that of getting dictograph records of an apparently private conversation between Mr. Weil and the two commissioners, in which the latter were to make statements substantially in accord with those they made before."

"Mr. Weil looked about for a dictograph operator who could be trusted. He learned that Biddinger was the champion dictograph artist of America. Therefore Biddinger was brought to Chicago and offered him $5,000 to come to Pittsburgh and perform with a full equipment of dictograph apparatus. This was set in the rooms of a building in Charleston, and the conversation came off as scheduled. Biddinger still innocent of his part."

Takes Dictograph Back.
Something, however, told him there was a snag in the woods. The two commissioners spoke so clearly and so near the hidden portion of the dictograph that the conversation seemed to have been carefully rehearsed. So Biddinger finally made up his mind that the whole thing was a frameup and took his dictograph back to New York. He refused to take the $5,000. Finally Biddinger revealed the whole plot to the governor. A grand jury returned indictments charging Mr. Weil with bribing public officials.

The result was that Weil was and is doing all in his power to keep Biddinger out of the state of West Virginia. He is the state's star witness, and without his testimony Weil is exceedingly liable to be freed of the bribery charges.

Weil Gets Affidavits.
"We'll get a lot of affidavits from crooks and ex-convicts in Chicago, saying they paid protection money to Biddinger when he was a copper in Chicago. The whole machinery of the legal departments of Illinois and New York is turned upside down to get him extradited to Chicago so that he can be prosecuted here and prevented from helping the prosecution of Weil in West Virginia."

"It is charged Biddinger urged William Quinn, a saloonkeeper, to go to Wisconsin to bet $1,000 on a prize fight, and then had pickpockets rob Quinn on a railroad train. I have an affidavit from Quinn declaring this is untrue. Besides, on May 1, 1911, the date mentioned in connection with the charges, Biddinger was at Catalina Island, Cal., on a fishing trip. I have a photograph of him holding a big fish he caught there then, which I shall offer in evidence to Gov. Dunne."

The Quinn affidavit also says the trip with Biddinger to the prize fight took place in 1908, instead of 1911. The prize fight records show the fight was held in 1908.

THE ALIBI

White Sea Bass Caught by Guy Biddinger at Catalina Island, Cal. 1911

This photograph will be submitted to Gov. Dunne this morning by Attorney Robert Cantwell as part of evidence he declares shows that Detective Guy Biddinger is the victim of "a gigantic frameup." Biddinger claims it was taken in California on May 1, 1911, when he is alleged to have acted in collusion with pickpockets in robbing William Quinn, a saloonkeeper, of a sum of money after inducing him to take $1,000 to Wisconsin to bet on a prize fight.

Therefore Biddinger was brought to Chicago and offered him $5,000 to come to Pittsburgh and perform with a full equipment of dictograph apparatus. PREPARE TODAY FOR CITY CHECK ON TRAFFIC LINES

Citizens Asked to Aid in Trolley and Elevated Survey, Starting Tomorrow.

Preparations will be made today for the traffic check of the elevated system which the traction and subway commission is to undertake tomorrow. The checkup of the traffic of the 200 elevated stations will entail the use of more than 1,000 observers and fifty "check masters." More than two tons of paper will be used in the "check slips" handed to passengers from which the tabulations will be made.

In the tabulations more than 40,000 entries will have to be made for each hour in the twenty-four, showing the number of passengers from which the tabulations will be made.

Garner Issues Statement.
Commissioner of Public Service J. P. Garner issued the following statement to the public:

"The city of Chicago is just about to make a check of the passengers using the elevated railroad and street railways to find out where the passengers start, what routes they take, and where they get off. The city needs this information so that it may know what steps must be taken to make the existing transportation system better and what additional construction must be made and where."

"The check on the elevated railroad will take place on Wednesday and Thursday."

How Citizens Can Assist.
"I therefore request each passenger to lend assistance in the following way: Accept the checking slip handed you at stations. Retain it unfolded during your journey. Hand it to the collector who will be stationed at exits. Today the thousand observers will be shown their duties."

CUT PAYMENTS TO FUNKHAUSER

Major's Department Receiving Less Than Appropriation Named in Budget.

Major M. L. C. Funkhauser, second deputy superintendent of police, was given $30,000 for vice investigations by the city council—but he can't spend all of it.

Orders have been issued by City Controller Pike, it was learned yesterday, to limit the expenditures for this purpose to $1,800 a month, or $21,600 a year. As a result the number of investigators is cut down from fifteen or more to seven and the expense accounts are limited to $1.50 a day.

Pike Budget Gave $34,000.
When City Controller Pike submitted his budget estimate to the council the amount set up for vice investigation was $34,000. A movement was started by Ald. W. O. Nance to increase the amount. The committee unanimously voted to appropriate $38,000, adding a stipulation that the money should be spent under the sole supervision of the major.

"We have received no protest that $38,000 a month is insufficient," said one of Mr. Pike's assistants.

"If, as I am told, the major is not getting the full $38,000, we will find out why," said Ald. Merriam. "It should be looked into, and will be at the next meeting of the committee."

Eitelson Studies Movie Law.
Corporation Counsel Eitelson began the preparation of a statement covering the provisions of the moving picture censorship ordinance. He said if former Corporation Counsel Polson held Mad. Funkhauser was the final authority in the matter, either Mr. Polson was clearly wrong or the ordinance had been amended since then.

Employers for Innovation, While Labor Leaders Oppose It, Year's Investigation Shows.

New York, April 24.—One of the most exhaustive reports that have ever been made on the various profit sharing plans that are in force or have been tried in the United States was made public today by the welfare department of the National Civic Federation. Civic workers have been engaged for twelve months in investigating more than 300 so-called profit sharing schemes, and their report covers the analysis of some 200 plans.

The views of the leaders of organized labor appear unanimous in opposition to the general theory and practice of profit sharing, while a large number of the employers whose plans are analyzed in the report consider profit sharing a success.

"Many reasons," says the report, "are given by these employers for their faith in the idea. Among these are that it promotes more continuous service, reduces cost of production, secures more regular attendance at work, builds up confidence, and creates a spirit of cooperation, gets rid of rolling stones, and encourages home building."

"Among the points raised against the profit sharing among the trades unions the chief is, of course, that the interests of labor as a whole would be imperiled by any weakening or destruction of strong organization to protect wage standards which, under profit sharing, would pass wholly under the control of the employers."

"The city of Chicago is just about to make a check of the passengers using the elevated railroad and street railways to find out where the passengers start, what routes they take, and where they get off. The city needs this information so that it may know what steps must be taken to make the existing transportation system better and what additional construction must be made and where."

Speaker Takes Floor to Warn Members Here It Is Time to Stop Political Talk.

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Speaker Clark took the floor today and admonished the house to "get down to work and get away from here." He said both Democrats and Republicans have been making long speeches for political effect and he was tired of such tactics.

"If we don't get down to business we will be here until the frost flies," said the speaker. "You Republicans ought to help speed things up. You are just as much concerned about your fences as the Democrats."

The "rebel yell" of the Democrats interrupted the speaker for an instant, but he resumed, assailing both sides for the long debate on segregation of whites and negroes in District of Columbia detention homes.

"Quit this kind of debating, go to work, and get away from here."

Read what a prominent Dental Surgeon says about tooth powder!!

By M. L. Rein, M. D., D.D.S.
Lecturer on Dental Pathology at the University of Pennsylvania.

Proper brushing of the teeth which is a mouth wash of a very simple nature may be used as a pleasant toilet adjunct. Any mouth wash that has any distinct potential therapeutic value in the care of diseased tissues becomes a very dangerous agent in the hands of the individual user. If for any reason the dentist desires the individual to use some medicinal agent locally, it should be given as a separate prescription with all necessary instructions as to the length of time that the prescription should be kept up. There can be no more dangerous custom than the effort to incorporate remedial agents in mouth washes or dentifrices except by a physician's order.

All of the ingredients of a tooth powder should be soluble and of such a nature that it can be swallowed without producing any injurious effects. In considering the subject of a dentifrice it must be understood that nearly every constituent that enters into the composition can be found on the market in various degrees of purity, perfection and quality. This makes the prescribing of a suitable dentifrice a very difficult matter.

The body or bulk of a dentifrice should be made of the very finest precipitated chalk. The abrasive quality must be kept at the very lowest point on account of the danger of wearing away the enamel. To the chalk may be added small proportions of soda bicarbonate and the finest soda borate and a still smaller proportion of powdered soap which should be made only of the purest olive oil. A trace of saccharine may be added to sweeten the powder slightly. Any of the essential oils may be used in small quantities for flavoring purposes. If these ingredients are carefully selected, such a dentifrice can be used indiscriminately without danger of any harm resulting.

The individual should always use a sufficient

In the above article Dr. Rein virtually writes the formula of CALOX. Note that he recommends a tooth powder (not a paste) and says that the percentage of soap in a dentifrice should be very low. Tooth pastes are 25% to 50% soap. Note that he states emphatically that any dentifrice containing drugs (such as carboric acid or chlorate of potash) should be used only under the supervision of your dentist. These are all facts which we have emphasized in our recent advertising. CALOX complies in every respect with what Dr. Rein states a dentifrice should be. It goes even further—it releases free oxygen in the mouth—oxygen, you know, is Nature's germicide. Practically the entire dental profession in this country and Europe have attested the wonderful germicidal value of the oxygen in CALOX.

No other dentifrice will whiten your teeth as does

PREPARE SPECIAL STARTS TONIGHT TO WASHINGTON

Business Men Will Give Dinner to Illinois Senators and Congressmen.

All aboard! The Illinois business men's "prepare special," flying the national colors from every ledge, starts from Chicago tonight to take the train to Washington. The train will leave the Grand Central station over the Baltimore and Ohio at 5:45 o'clock.

S. M. Hastings, president of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, has been selected to sound the keynote at the dinner for the Illinois congressmen and senators at the Shoreham hotel in Washington on Wednesday evening.

To Arm, Conceded. "We are not going down there to debate whether an increase of our forces is necessary and imperatively demanded," Mr. Hastings explained. "Upon that point our minds are finally made up. If any man is so blind to what is happening in the world as to contend that our present army or navy is sufficient, we are not going to argue with him, unless he is ready to change his mind. The proposition has passed the stage of discussion, and our association considers every man who opposes adequate preparation, sincere though he may be, as an enemy of the true interests of the country."

SUICIDE OF WINEMAN TRACED TO ILL HEALTH.

Proprietor of Windsor-Cleffton Hotel Had Suffered from Severe Nervous Headaches.

Poor health is believed to have caused Joseph Wineman, proprietor of the Windsor-Cleffton hotel, to shoot and kill himself yesterday. "He was a son-in-law of the late Leon Mandel. Relatives say Mr. Wineman had been on the verge of a breakdown because of severe nervous headaches. He was being treated by Dr. P. W. Gill, the hotel physician. About 10:30 o'clock he left a letter for James R. McKercher, his assistant, stating he was going upstairs to room 24. McKercher returned from the bank a few minutes before 11:30 and went to the room. He told the police he knocked on the door and Wineman called "Come in." "I opened the door," he said, "and Mr. Wineman was standing in the middle of the floor with a revolver in his hand. Before I could take another step he had shot himself." Mr. Wineman was taken to the Michael Reese hospital. He died at 2 o'clock. Seven years ago Leon Mandel bought the Windsor-Cleffton hotel. He turned it over to his son-in-law to manage. Mr. Wineman is survived by the widow and three children. The residence is at 3431 South Michigan avenue.

FLAYS LORIMER AS FALSIFIER

Holly Ridicules Assertions Ex-Senator Didn't Know of Loans to Himself.

CITES "FRAUD INTENT."

William Lorimer and Charles B. Munday had no right to impose upon the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank the danger of loss involved in loans to themselves and their enterprises, Assistant State's Attorney Holly told the trial jurors yesterday. The fact that the two men were willing to put their bank in this peril, the prosecutor argued, constitutes an intent to defraud.

Holly put particular emphasis on the assertion that both Lorimer and Munday probably had no desire that the bank should lose the money it risked. On the contrary, the prosecutor declared, both men probably expected to acquire wealth by their speculative ventures and then repay the bank. Holly also pointed out that practically all these loans were made without being first submitted to the bank board of directors in accordance with the state laws.

Calls Statements False. Lorimer's denials of knowledge in connection with the affairs of the Lorimer and Gallagher company and the Southern Traction venture were denounced by the prosecutor as false statements. Holly questioned the position of the defense in not producing William Lorimer Jr., Joseph P. Gallagher, and Munday himself to testify in corroboration of the unsupported assertions made by the former senator.

"Neither the son nor Gallagher, the partner, is here to substantiate Senator Lorimer's story," Holly said. "If these men could corroborate his story wouldn't they have been put on the stand? I have this respect for Lorimer—he would not put his own son on the stand to tell an untruth."

"Lorimer tells you he was financial executive of the Lorimer & Gallagher company. Yet he would have you believe his own company borrowed money from his own bank and he knew nothing about it! Suppose he was not active in some particular transactions, do you suppose his son, his partner, and Munday all told him nothing of these deals in which they took part for the benefit of his company?"

By Personal Overdraft. "The claim of the defense that Mr. Lorimer did not know the money to build the Southern Traction line was coming from the La Salle is absurd. Lorimer tells us he did not know Southern Traction bonds had gone into the bank, and yet some of these bonds went into the bank to cover his own personal overdrafts."

"Senator Lorimer would have you believe he put $400,000 into the bank to finance the construction and then paid no attention to it for a whole year. That story is contradicted by every circumstance and every bit of documentary evidence in this case. The story is absurd."

SCOTT TO MEET CARRANZA CHIEF IN 'WAR' PARLEY

Oregon and U. S. Staff Leader Will Thrash Out Problems of the Villa Hunt.

Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, sought an interview with Secretary Lansing. State department officials declined to discuss the subject. The Mexican embassy stated that the request had not been transmitted through Mr. Arredondo, so far as known there. It is understood to have been made directly by Gen. Carranza through James Lynn Rodgers, special agent at Mexico City. A reply will be sent through Mr. Rodgers.

Will Move Base North. San Antonio, Tex., April 24.—Gen. Funston sent to Gen. Pershing today the preliminary orders for the reconcentration of his troops along the line he had recommended and which had been approved. Already Gen. Pershing has begun drawing in the mobile forces that have been operating considerably in advance of the southern terminus of his long line of communication, and the line itself will be materially shortened.

His headquarters will be moved from Namiquire to Colonia Dublan, in the environs of Casas Grandes, and stronger units will be grouped along the shortened line from Columbus to a point considerably nearer the border than at present. This new alignment of the forces will be maintained pending developments incident to the diplomatic negotiations. Reports from Gen. Pershing today indicated that Francisco Villa had been located again, this time west of Parral, in the mountains of western Chihuahua. The report also indicated that Villa was wounded, but only slightly.

Another aeroplane was wrecked and one of its two occupants slightly injured in a fall west of Chihuahua, according to another report today to Gen. Funston. Lieut. Willis and Dargue were returning from Chihuahua to the American line when the accident occurred. Willis' head was injured and one of his ankles sprained. They walked to San Antonio (Mexico) after they had destroyed what was left of the machine.

Gen. Funston cast considerable doubt upon rumors of fighting between a detachment of Carrancista forces and American soldiers at Satevo today. No reports of such an engagement have reached headquarters. "If such a clash took place, I would have had word of it immediately," he said.

Parral Mob Heads Die. El Paso, Tex., April 24.—Two of the ringleaders of the Parral mob who attacked American soldiers April 12, have been executed by Gen. Luis Herrera, according to John Hale, Parral mining man, who arrived in El Paso today. Thirty others are under arrest and may face a firing squad. Hale displayed a wound in the forearm and said it was received in anti-American riots which preceded the attack on the troops.

Howse Averts a Clash. Gen. Pershing's Headquarters, Namiquire, Mexico, by wireless to Columbus, N. M., April 24.—A narrowly averted clash between Carranza soldiers and Maj. Howse's flying detachment of the eleventh cavalry was disclosed for the first time when the column arrived here today, after several days' campaign.

The Carranza garrison at San Borja, under Gen. Cavia, was formed for a charge against the United States soldiers, who were drawn up to repel them, when Maj. Howse rode in between the forces, waving his hat.

The mission of the expedition was explained to the Carrancistas and trouble avoided. Maj. Howse withdrawing his men from the town. The incident occurred ten days ago.

Howse made a detailed report of his fight with the Villistas at Lasaya on April 10 to which Trooper Kirby was killed and three other American soldiers wounded. The column under Howse was said to have gone twenty miles farther south than any other American detachment. At one time he was only two days behind Villa and found evidence that Villa was wounded. The abandoned cart supposedly used as a litter for the band leader and bloody bandages were found.

Seven Villistas to Die. Denning, N. M., April 24.—The seven Villistas who were captured after the raid on Columbus and convicted of murder in the first degree were condemned to death today by Judge Edward L. Medler. The date of the execution was set for May 15.

To Execute Villa Chiefs. Mexico City, April 24.—Reports at the war department today say that Gen. Pablo Reyna, one of the chief officials of the Villa army, who was captured at Cuahuilachic district, will be executed by the orders of the constitutionalist general, Luis Gutierrez, and that a number of Reyna's followers will meet a like fate.

$11,000 for Delayed Message. San Francisco, April 24.—A judgment of $11,000 was awarded in the United States District court here today because a telegraph message was not delivered promptly.

answer this letter publicly because, if, as the writer contends, it contains opinions shared by all consumers, we can answer them all at the same time.

Chicago, April 20, 1916.

Borden's Condensed Milk Co.

Gentlemen: Your statement of reason for increasing price of milk from 8c to 9c per qt. seems incomplete in that it does not show why your increase to consumer is just twice that granted to the producer—nor will the answer suffice that it is covered by the fact of no increase in pints, etc., since on these your price amounts to 10c per qt., and no statement is made as to profit arising therefrom.

I know that the usual attitude is to assume that the consumer should not presume to know, or want to know, the real why and wherefore, etc., and will not be surprised that you do not issue a more convincing reason for this rise in price. There is nothing of my special personal opinion in this last, for everybody knows that it is shared by all consumers.

Yours truly, (Signed) A. C. I.

We want to assure you that the statement of ours referred to in your letter was not designed to be obscure, but, on the other hand, was an effort to be entirely frank and complete. We submitted the net figures from our books just as they appear, and we believe our books are as well kept as those of any modern business house.

You say that the consumer is not expected to presume to know the "real why and wherefore," but you may be sure that it was for no other reason than to inform the consumer that this statement was made.

It has been said that we have paid the farmer one-half cent per quart advance, and that we are charging the consumer one cent, or double the advance to the farmer. This is so obviously untrue that we are at a loss to understand how the statement obtains a sponsor.

The truth of the matter is, we pay an advance of .00474 cents per quart for our entire purchases delivered at our own plants in the country, and we ask the consumer to pay an advance of one cent per quart on that part of our supply sold in quart bottles. We sell 48 per cent of our entire purchase in quarts. In other words, we pay approximately one-half cent a quart for all and get one cent for less than half. We put the advance to the producer at one-half cent for the reason that the actual waste in handling and bottling is a factor that must be included in the cost, and easily brings it up to a full half-cent.

In reference to the profits on pints that are sold at 5 cents, there are two bottles to wash, two bottles to fill, two bottles to deliver, to get the ten cents per quart. And then there are two bottles to break. When we tell you that less than ten per cent of the original purchase goes into pint sales, you surely will admit that the profits cannot be excessive.

It is well to add here our belief that good milk such as we serve is the cheapest product that comes to your table, when its food value is considered. We know of nothing anywhere near the food value of milk that can be delivered to you for anywhere near the price. Milk is and always has been cheap for the reason that everybody connected with the milk industry has been willing to give more work for less money than any other industry requiring a like degree of intelligence and application.

The advance of one cent on your quart is not a hardship. It is fair and equitable. What you are chiefly interested in is the maintenance of quality. You do not want poor milk at any price.

Much has been said about wasteful methods in delivery. It seems to have occurred to none of the critics that the man on the wagon is delivering about as many units of milk as he should be expected to deliver, and is doing a man's work every day. The milk business makes no claims to have arrived at the ultimate state, but we believe it will compare in organization and efficiency with other similar enterprises.

We have tried to answer your questions here frankly. We will be glad to answer any others that were not included in your letter.

BOHEMIANS HERE ASK U.S. TO SAVE ALICE MAZARYK

Miss McDowell Counsels Moderation in Memorial to State Department.

Thirty representatives of the clubs making up the Bohemian Alliance of Chicago held a meeting yesterday afternoon to take steps in the matter of a public appeal for the life of Alice Mazaryk, now imprisoned in Prague under the charge of high treason.

These women represent 40,000 Bohemians. In other cities all over the country yesterday similar action was being taken.

Bitter Resolution Offered.

Miss Mary MacDowell, who has just returned from New York in the interests of the case, spoke. A Mr. Trozsky dilated on the wrongs Bohemia has suffered and the services rendered by Miss Mazaryk's father. He then read a resolution which had been drawn up by the Bohemian alliance. This was bitter in its criticism of the Austrian government, and said in part: "In our minds Austria is guilty of this war. In their desperation and tyranny they would not hesitate to put to death this girl—to punish the father through the daughter."

Miss MacDowell, however, begged the

Mr. W. Noble of 6937 Harper avenue asked the police yesterday to search for his father-in-law, Henry G. Peters, 48 years old, a mill owner in Berwyn, who has been missing since April 18. Mr. Noble said he fears Mr. Peters is in some sanitarium. He said he had been depressed from business strain.

Bohemians of Chicago to moderate their criticism, which could only hamper the state department and fail of effect.

Miss McDowell Opposes.

"We would all of us like to say what we thought about Austria," said Miss MacDowell, "but just now the question is to save Miss Mazaryk. I would rather have a living heroine than a dead martyr to the cause of Bohemia. Make your resolutions in the form of an appeal, not a protest."

She said she and Miss Jane Addams had been working on a resolution which should embody the word leniency. But the Bohemian women seemed to feel that this word admitted the guilt of Miss Mazaryk. So a resolution drawn by Miss Grace Abbott was accepted and signed by all present.

The Resolution.

We, the undersigned American friend of Alice Mazaryk, whose mother was an American citizen, have learned with deep concern of her imprisonment in Austria on a charge of high treason. Knowing as we do her nobility of character, her fine sense of honor, her humanitarian interests, her distinguished scholarship, we urgently request the state department to use all possible influence with the Austrian government to ensure against any summary military action being taken in her case.

"As Bohemians you can do nothing," concluded Miss MacDowell, "as American citizens, with the support of thousands of American women, you can perhaps save her life. You can at least make the Austrian government conscious that we are all watching it and expecting justice from it."

The Place It Occupies in the Hospitals of European Armies

from the front are always interesting, no matter from which army they come.

The following letter, translated here from its original text, has reached the Kolynos Company, addressed to its European branch:

Gentlemen:

When we opened our field hospital in September, our dentist, Dr. Wesley Young, wrote your firm and asked for a shipment of Kolynos Dental Cream for our wounded.

You sent a very liberal shipment, for which we were very thankful to you. It did the men a great deal of good. I have proved to be the best of all preparations.

You wrote us at that time a very kind letter and offered to continue to supply us with your valuable paste. We have been as economical as possible, so as not to misuse your kindness.

Lately we have very many cases of fractured jaws, due to bullet wounds, which have come to us, and for these poor people the best was barely good enough and so our supply of Kolynos has dwindled down.

We would be extremely thankful to you if you will supply our wounded for a second time with your excellent paste.

With sincere thanks and greetings, Dr. Wesley Young, Dental Surgeon, American Red Cross Hospital.

It is an interesting fact that the dentist has a place of great prominence in the world war now being waged. In one army in the field, accompanied by 800 dentists, more attention is being paid to the teeth than to any other part of the anatomy, with the possible exception of the feet.

Kolynos is being freely used in the field hospitals, the Red Cross hospitals, and by the soldiers in the trenches, in the principal European armies.

Where the utmost efficiency and hygienic cleanliness are essential in cleansing the teeth and mouth, Kolynos is the dental cream selected, all over the world.

BY LOUISE JAMES BA
THE collection of famous paintings, which has been opened yesterday at the Henry Heinhart Art Store, some thirty in all and they bear their number some of the greatest works of that mad genius, Raphael. It is a remarkably comprehensive collection of pictures of this great man, who Richard such glory and beauty for his country, and rewarded by the rocks and stars of adversity. It is inspiring poetry, shining dimly through the days as his incomparable shines through the wonder night leaves.

Twenty thousand dollars for picture! The second highest paid for the work of an American was the amount paid for his " " recently. A mocking figure is applied to the pathetically who, for seventeen years, had lived in the state asylum for Middletown, N. Y., driven to ruin and failure and defeat. There is one of the vastest tragedies in art, as there is a great deal more an irrefragable, certain haunting, lurking. This is especially of his "Moonlight," which is in this exhibition and which is loaned by the Toledo Museum. It is a fairy tale forlorn, a boat through a mass of luminous leaves, casting over an audience, suggesting the beauty of woods.

The arrangement of the exhibition is well planned, the major landscapes being in one room, the figures of Indian life being in another.

An admission of $1 is to be charged for the exhibit, which will last for two weeks. The proceeds are to go to the artist and his family. What remains, the income of which will be used for the purpose of the Fund society. Over $3,000 has been received during the exhibit in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shumway Barker

Barker Wedding
Splash of Color.

BY CINDERELLA.

THERE were no two opinions about the beauty and impressiveness of the Vincent-Barker wedding yesterday afternoon at St. James.

A lovely wedding, with a great deal of splendid, stirring organ music, a great rally of prominent old Chicago families of the South and North Sides, and a picturesque bridal party.

Jane Vincent, the bride, was sweet in a short white satin wedding gown, with sleeves and flounces of family lace. But the trail of lustrous satin was one of the longest ever, falling from the shoulders.

The wedding veil, also of lace, was worn back from the face and caught in a puff at the crown of the bride's smoothly waved hair, a rather austere and simple effect, which was delightful with her pretty features.

The bridemaids were arrayed like rainbows, or Joseph's coat, or Harlequin, or anything variegated. It was a real fascination to see them in their floating skirts of tulle, violet, blue, pink, yellow, apple green, with short flaring jackets of satin.

Mrs. Howard Spaulding in a vivid green gown, Mrs. Charles Vincent in violet, Miss Rosemond Goodrich in blue, Miss Ellen Barker in yellow, while Mrs. Lloyd Canby, the bride's sister and matron of honor, wore pink.

All the girls carried arm loads of sweet peas and were leghorn hats tilted somewhat over their faces, with garlands of many flowers.

After the ceremony a large and very gay reception and dance took place in the Virginia ballroom. The white wall panels were filled with great bouquets of pink roses and Easter lilies, and the bridal party revolved in front of a screen of lilies and tall tropical ferns.

Mrs. Vincent, the bride's mother, wore a street costume of dark blue faille, and Mrs. Frank Barker, the mother of the bridegroom, was in a similar toilette of gray.

The Barkers are celebrating another wedding next month, when their daughter Ellen marries Ritchie Kimball.

Mrs. Ridgely of Springfield, Mrs. Vincent's mother, was present, also Miss Nina Cullitt and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ridgely.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Colby, Mrs. Leonard Boyce, Mrs. Charles Dexter, Mrs. Henry Mason, Mrs. Mark Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Barnes, Mrs. Cunningham, Col. and Mrs. William Judson, Mrs. Joseph Colburn, Mrs. Charles Strobel, Mrs. Harry Howard, Mrs. Elnde, Mrs. Moses Wentworth, Mrs. Horace Kennedy, Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Le Roy, Mrs. William Barry, Mrs. George Payson, Mrs. W. F. Hunt, Miss Rose, Mrs. George W. Meeker, Miss Whitehead, Edward Shawmeyer, Mrs. Graham Harris, Mrs. Joseph McRoberts, Charles Ridgely.

The "Vincent house on Astor street is occupied at present by Mrs. Arthur Ryerson.

There will be dancing after the concert.

Ferdinand Schevill of the University of Chicago will speak in English this evening on "Constantinople: Its Past and Future" at the meeting of the Germanistic society in Fullerton hall of the Art Institute.

A Spanish play will be given this evening by the Spanish club in the rooms of the City club.

A Bach-Schubert concert will be given this evening at Orchestra hall by the Bach Choral society.

Beta chapter of Omicron Pi Gamma sorority will give a dancing party this evening at the Humboldt park refectory.

Concert to Aid Jews.

For the purpose of raising funds to send an American, trained nurse to Palestine to help the Jewish people there to contend with an epidemic of eye disease the Chicago Jewish committee for Palestinian welfare, a branch of the national organization, will give a concert and performance in Fullerton hall, Art Institute, Thursday afternoon.

The principal feature of the afternoon will be the first performance of a play in one act called "Hativva" (The Hope) and written by Mrs. Jacob J. Abt. The play has been written round a number of Jewish folk songs.

The cast will include Mrs. Frederic Kaufmann, Miss Anna M. Goldberg, Mrs. Jesse Lowenbaum, Mrs. Maurice M. Strauss, and Miss Doris Zelsler. There will be a number of folk songs in Yiddish. Among these will be "Steinerne Palast" (Palaces of Marble), "Oim Pripet Shok" (On the Hearth), "Kum, Mein Kind" (Come, My Child), "Alein Weg" (Alone I Go), and "Hativva" (The Hope), the Hebrew national song of Palestine.

Do It Now!

You are required by city ordinance to keep your premises in a clean and sanitary condition at all times. We therefore request you to clean your rooms, attic, cellars, yards, of all waste material; to deposit dirt and rubbish in ash cans; to pile large material on rear lot lines for removal by city.

You are recommended to clean floors, windows and all unvarnished woods; to paint or whitewash buildings, outhouses and fences; to exterminate rats and all vermin and fly-breeding spots.

Cultivate the soil in all available places; plant shrubs and flowers; require your landlord to repair leaky roofs and plumbing.

Burn your garbage; fire, air and water are nature's three great purifiers. New science makes high use of fire in handling garbage, one of the most disagreeable and dangerous forms of waste in modern concentrated living. Garbage burners can now be installed on the premises, which not only completely dispose of all offensive waste of this character, but actually make it help heat water for domestic use while it is being consumed. Instead of being an expense, therefore, garbage so treated becomes a saving. Efficient hot water-heating garbage burners are now available for all kinds of buildings.

COURT CLASS IN 'RITHMETIC.

A kindly gentleman named Kenneth M. Landis pronounced an ironic abra-cadabra from the bench of the United States District court yesterday and cleared away a lot of full gray from the future of Harry O. Newquist.

Newquist lives at 856 Fletcher street and is a guard on the Northwestern elevated. It's a good job, but until Judge Landis took a hand in the Newquist matter—sometimes all of the monthly pay envelope it yields had been going of late to loan sharks. A wife and child 5 months old are the reason.

Newquist finds himself facing a situation unheard of in loan sharkdom. He is going to pay only what he owes. Court Class in 'Rithmetic. Judge Landis brought it about by a civil method. Newquist having filed a petition in bankruptcy, the court summoned his money lender creditors and asked them what rate of interest they charged. They didn't know. The judge indicated a large table in his courtroom, provided pencils and paper, and told them to figure it out. When they got through they said if they got whatever principal was coming to them they'd be satisfied. The interest rate on Newquist's loans, as estimated by the decidedly unimpartial arithmetic class, figured between 400 and 500 per cent.

"How much money did you lend Newquist, and how much did he pay back?" Judge Landis asked John Sanderson, representing the Western Loan company. Borrowed $220, paid $204. "Since July 3, 1914, he has borrowed $220 and paid $204," said Sanderson. "In borrowing that $220 he would borrow $5 or $10 and then when he paid it back with interest of $1 or $2 you would get him to sign a new note for another $5 or $10, wouldn't you?"

"Well, he has borrowed that way every five weeks."

"So, in reality, he has paid $44 interest for a loan of $5 or $10. Does he still owe you anything, do you think?"

"No, sir." John Sanderson of the Park Loan company was willing to let matters drop without taking for any more money.

"You say you lent Newquist $5 and have received $11 in payment from him? Are you sure that under those conditions you are perfectly willing to let go of the $6?" Judge Landis asked.

"Yes, sir, he doesn't owe me anything."

Starrett Glad to Drop It. Oliver Hollins Starrett, owner of the Hollins Loan company, offered to drop everything even though Newquist still owes him money. In making a $20 loan to Newquist he had made out two notes, the second one for $7.50, the interest.

"I thought that in case of a dispute as to the interest it would be easier to collect the principal," said Starrett.

"You mean that in case you would destroy the $7.50 note?"

"Yes."

"Has Newquist paid you anything?"

"He paid me $7.50 and Mr. Samuels paid me $4."

"Well, I don't want you to lose any of the $14 due you, so you may collect $14 from the clerk of this court."

Adjuster's Fee a Mere $30. Samuels represents the Accurate Adjustment and Reporting company and had contracted with Newquist to take up the money from him and pay it to the creditors until their bills amount to $30.50 were paid. For this he had charged $30, 40 of which Newquist had paid him, he said.

"How much do you think is due you?" the judge asked.

"Four dollars."

"Pay Mr. Samuels $4," he said to the clerk. "He wanted $30 for collecting $34, and is getting $10 for collecting $14. Does that satisfy you, Mr. Samuels?"

"Yes, sir."

Then turning to Newquist Judge Landis said:

"I want you to promise me that you will never sign another one of these notes, and I want you to keep that promise. It is the only way, your only chance, to get away from these men and get on your feet. Will you do it?"

"Yes, sir," said Newquist with a happy grin.

"HOBSON'S CHOICE" AT THE PRINCESS

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

EVERYTHING was very pleasant last evening at the Princess until at about 10 o'clock the maternal instinct, or its imitation, asserted itself in the character of this daughter to prim Miss Maggie Hobson and caused her to misbehave. The play, "Hobson's Choice," had progressed simply and prudently, and the only sins exposed to view had been the respectable ones of selfishness, inebriety, and irreverence. Maggie, a Lancashire spinster, had seduced her mate in the person of a Willy Moseop, a cobbler in her father's shop, and had borne him a serene way to her cave. It was the nuptial night, and Willy, shy, irresponsible, inexperienced, had hesitated at her chamber door, and then, weakening, had lain himself down to sleep on this side of it. But just as the decorous playgoer had set himself for one of those fragrant, simple, suggestively sexless "curtains" Maggie appeared, in an unlabeled night gown, and sublimely and he took him by the ear and led him firmly through the portals; and thus was punctuated another promising drama for the debutante.

Miss Hobson's deportment in that crisis was, perhaps, in keeping with the more or less realistic nature of the play, yet I suspect that "Hobson's Choice" would run just as long at the Princess were her inclinations in the matter subjected to the process known in cinema circles as the "cut-out." The incident is clearly, humorous and comical; still it is an unnecessary bit of audacity in a comedy which does not need that sort of thing. I am for truth and candor in the outery drama, but in an amusing and intelligent frivolity let us have some secrets from one another.

From the foregoing you may suspect that "Hobson's Choice" is an entertainment to be considered in arranging your play-going itinerary. It is, indeed, Mr. Brighouse, the author, selects certain quotidian (meaning every day) incidents in the lives of village people in Lancashire, and by expert, honest, humorous, and characteristic presentation of them makes three hours pass pleasantly. Miss Molly Pearson, who was the first "Bunty," pulls the strings of this comedy—a calm, comely, self-possessed, determined, masterful little lady, who does as she pleases with all the others concerned, and at the end modestly combines victory with virtue. That is, her despised husband becomes the hero of the piece, while she stately smiles an indication of what every woman knows.

Her father, perfectly acted, I think by Mr. A. G. Andrews, is a pseudo-dominant and ill-tempered irascible, who, following the gentle craft of shoemaking, is yet the mean and impossible parent of three comely daughters. Miss Pearson's role selects for matrimony an expert half-sister, acted beyond belief by Mr. Whitford Kane, an old and a good friend of the intelligent theatergoer of this community. He is the timorous bridegroom who places his neck so inevitably beneath the heel of the insistently creative heroine, and comes out a successful husband and tradesman.

Nothing much happens, save the thing mentioned a few paragraphs above, to cause talk, and you have to be satisfied with skillful, calculated photography. The play is simple and its performance is most explicit. For instance, Mr. Ben-stalk, whose epiphany is uproarious, I fear, a mercenary appeal to us who are low of brow. The entire performance is easy of comprehension; and it is a good example of approaching, but not going beyond, the rim which divides us, who know, from the others who think they know.

CO-ED LOSES UNCLE AND HE GAINS CO-ED BRIDE.

Clayton A. Dunham Meets Niece's Chum, Miss Beth M. Robinson, and Jingle Go Wedding Bells.

Miss Gertrude Miller of Kansas City, a student at Northwestern university, is mourning the loss of a perfectly good uncle.

The relative in the case is Clayton A. Dunham, a middle aged manufacturer of steel specialties, who has offices in the Fisher building and has been living at the Evanston hotel.

In the course of events he met his niece's roommate, Miss Beth M. Robinson, and yesterday word came that Dunham and Miss Robinson were married Sunday evening in Pasadena, Cal.

SUICIDE NOTE FROM WIFE.

A good-by note asking that her husband be notified and a gold cross and chain were found at the south end of the lagoon.

MR. PRUNES

VICE PERILS TO YOUTH GROWING; WOMEN TO ACT

Club, Stunned by Immorality Under Mayor's Regime, Plans Crusade.

AMUSEMENT PLACES ARE HIT.

As a result of the inaugural address yesterday of Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, new president of the Woman's City club, a campaign against the "agencies of destruction" is to be opened up by the organization. Mrs. Bowen made her address at the annual luncheon of the club in the Auditorium hotel and shocked and surprised hundreds of women who were not familiar with the easy avenues to destruction open to young women in Chicago.

Mrs. Bowen's indictment of conditions hit the city administration and the police force. It showed up conditions on lake shores, in dance halls, the cabarets, the moving picture houses, and the amusement parks. The information was procured through the activities of the Juvenile Protective association of which Mrs. Bowen has been president for a number of years.

Miss Vittum Will Aid. The women's attack against the agencies of evil will be under the supervision of Mrs. Bowen and Miss Harriet Vittum, who is civic director of the club. It is expected that a special committee for the purpose will be appointed soon.

Much of the blame for present conditions, except as regards the lake steamers, was placed on the Thompson administration. "Conditions under the present administration in the dance halls and cabarets are worse than the association has ever known them to be," said Mrs. Bowen.

Watch Moral Surroundings. "For nine years the Juvenile Protective association has been carefully watching both physical and moral surroundings in theaters, dance halls, cabarets, amusement parks, and lake boats. So shocking have conditions become that even we intended young people in search of recreation walk a road, at the present moment, easily leading to destruction."

The assistant to the judge of the juvenile court recently spoke of the depravity adjacent to one of our amusement parks as the largest house of assignation in Chicago.

Hotels Over Cabarets. "An investigation of movie theaters showed 216 violations of law. It is estimated that more than half of the 7,000 amusements have cabarets. In a majority of the cabarets the singer is used simply as a lure for the men, and many of the establishments have rooming houses connected with them."

"No hint of the injunction that the indignant sale of liquor to minors, improper and indecent dancing, and such flagrant indecencies that they are unpardonable."

The Juvenile Protection association is making no effort to investigate the applicants for special bar permits.

WOMAN, MASKED, LEADS WESTINGHOUSE STRIKE RIOT

Shots Fired at East Pittsburgh—Two Men Injured—Hot Water Turns Back 1,500 Workers.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 24.—The first serious rioting in the strike of 13,000 employees of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company in East Pittsburgh occurred tonight. Several shots were fired at an unidentified striker and a detective were injured.

The trouble was the climax of a day of disorder during which deputy sheriffs and railroad police were used to clear the streets. Fifteen hundred strikers were returning to East Pittsburgh after breaking up a meeting of shellmakers in Wilmerding, an adjoining borough, when the clash occurred tonight. The strikers were led by a stylishly young woman, whose face was covered with a paper mask.

Hot water streams were used as one weapon by the guards.

APPROVE BREAKING FIRE LAW

Council Committee Recommends Special Ordinance Permitting Lumber Construction.

The council buildings committee yesterday at its final session before the regular council convenes voted to authorize D. W. Hayes, 7205 South Asland avenue, to construct an intended court of lumber in the ordinance. The vote was as follows:

YEAS. Kline, Miller, Lynch, Powers, Dempsey, NAYES. McCormick, Vanderbilt, Link, Kimball.

It would cost Hayes only $250 more, it was said, to comply with the ordinance. First Deputy Superintendent of Police Schuetzler asked an amendment to the code to permit the construction of new police stations of slow burning instead of dropwood material. He said it would save $250,000. No action was taken.

CANDLE FLAME STARTS FIRE.

A lighted candle which ignited some grass, it is believed, caused a fire in the rooms of the Sanitary Office Tower company on the fourth floor of an eight story brick building at 500 South Peoria street last night. The loss from water and smoke was estimated at $3,000. The alarm was sounded by the automatic sprinkling system.

A BRIGADE OF YOUNG DIRT CHASERS

How Chicago Children Aid Growups in Tackling the Spring Cleanup Problem.

May School Dorothy Bathurst, Odell Bathman, Werner Daib, Edward Schuchel

The decision in the six round bout being staged this week between Belling Chicago and Dusty Dirt went to Chicago on points at the end of round 1 yesterday.

Housewives and children, janitors and maids, went after the city's enemy with such vigor that already vacant lot alleys and back yards are beginning to take on the appearance of a real spotless town.

In some neighborhoods cleanup clubs have been organized and a systematic overhauling of the vicinity is in progress. In other school children have taken it upon themselves to look after all vacant lots.

The prediction is that D. Dirt will be clinging to the ropes long before the final round is reached, when a clean knockout is expected.

"My Own Love: Can you imagine how I felt when the last mail came yesterday and none from you. But the telegram came later in the day—of course I was glad, but I don't like the horrid, cold things. Do you, dear? I felt fairly sick when I read it, but then I thought: 'Why, you gooses, he can't call you 'dear' and 'darling' in a telegram.'"

"I can scarcely wait to see you, darling. You say you have things of vital interest to tell me. I don't know what to think—good or bad. One more day and then, impatiently, lovingly, your Ethel."

It Seems Six Years. Another: "Dear Love: It seems like years since I saw you last, dear. I'm so worried about you and your family troubles. I hope her trouble isn't serious—poor, brave woman, my heart aches for her. Be kind to her, darling. Surely in the fullness of our love we cannot be less than kind—we have everything and she is nothing."

"I know your time is limited if she is ill, but surely you can steal a few moments for the little girl who loves you so. You'll never, never know how much I suffer when you are home, dear. I picture to myself your home, you three at different times of the day—meal time, evening, morning, everything, every hour. She calls you 'dear,' she touches you."

"Darling, dare you ever dream of suffering more than I? Try to imagine yourself in my position. Would your heart ache, dear?"

"I doof, doo, doo lobe o! Dood oot Your true blue, Ethel."

That Sweet Tweet Letter. And still another: "Precious One: I'm terribly, terribly tired, but almost happy. Knew why? Cause I had a sweet tweet letter from you, my darling."

"O, I love you, sweet. I love you, love you, I love you more and more each day. It brings us closer together, our suffering, don't you know it? I want you so badly. I miss your dear arms about me, your love, your good-night kisses."

"God bless you, my own true love. Never will I through any action or suffering, don't you know it? I want you so badly. I miss your dear arms about me, your love, your good-night kisses."

"I hope your little matrimonial home is sailing on smooth waters since her return. You must be good, Carl, and treat her right from now on. As always, 'Pluff' (Onawa, Ia.)."

Another Letter Gone Wrong. Likewise Mrs. Helen M. Watson read a letter, or several letters. Wherefore? "Watson, representing her, resides at 2514 Sheffield avenue, was granted by Judge Kersten a divorce from Carl C. Watson, a Sioux City, Ia., traveling salesman."

Here is one of the letters that her attorney, Frank A. Lasley, showed the court:

"Dear Carl: Am coming to Sioux City next Sunday morning. Do you think you can meet me there? I started to school last Monday and am getting along fine with my work. This is certainly a lonesome old town. My school work takes up a good deal of my time—that's one good thing. But I am willing to sacrifice myself for the next six months—then I can have a few good ones, I hope."

"I hope your little matrimonial home is sailing on smooth waters since her return. You must be good, Carl, and treat her right from now on. As always, 'Pluff' (Onawa, Ia.)."

INSANITY PLEA OF WOMAN WHO SLEW HER 2 CHILDREN.

Case of Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters Rogers Likely to Go to Jury at New York Today.

New York, April 24.—The selection of a jury and the presentation of the state's case against Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters Rogers, on trial here for the murder of her two children on Dec. 20, 1914, were completed in less than four hours today.

Former Lieut. Gov. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, representing the accused woman, then announced that insanity would be the main contention of the defense.

Several witnesses, most of them neighbors of Mrs. Rogers, described her great love for her children and told of alleged irrational acts of the woman.

Mrs. Chanler announced when the trial was adjourned this evening that he would call a prominent New York alienist as a witness for Mrs. Rogers tomorrow. He intimated also that the case probably would go to the jury tomorrow.

Cruelty to Wife "Hidious." In giving Mrs. Lena Buntin a divorce from John Buntin of 3079 Indiana avenue on the count of cruelty, Judge Denis E. Sullivan said that Buntin's brutality was as hideous as any he had ever seen.

"DOOD DOO DOO LOBE OO" NOTE WINS A DIVORCE

Not to Mention 'Sweet Tweet' and 'Your Own Little Ethel' of Green Bay.

RIVAL 'FEELS FOR' HIS WIFE.

When Mrs. Katherine Griffith of 1755 Birchwood avenue discovered in the clothing of her husband, Norman Griffith, a Marshall Field & Co. salesman, a packet of letters from a woman, she said:

"Norman, bring her to see me."

Griffith sent his wife's invitation to Miss Ethel Johnson, a trained nurse of Green Bay, Wis. She came and faced the wife.

"Give him up," was Mrs. Griffith's plea. "Give him up. We are married and have a little child—a boy."

Miss Johnson and Griffith looked at each other.

"No," said she. "No," said she. "We can't," they said together. "We love each other."

In the presence of the wife they embraced.

That Cold Telegram. Therefore Mrs. Griffith obtained a divorce the custody of her child, and $75 a month alimony yesterday from Judge McKinley. As evidence these letters were introduced.

"My Own Love: Can you imagine how I felt when the last mail came yesterday and none from you. But the telegram came later in the day—of course I was glad, but I don't like the horrid, cold things. Do you, dear? I felt fairly sick when I read it, but then I thought: 'Why, you gooses, he can't call you 'dear' and 'darling' in a telegram.'"

"I can scarcely wait to see you, darling. You say you have things of vital interest to tell me. I don't know what to think—good or bad. One more day and then, impatiently, lovingly, your Ethel."

It Seems Six Years. Another: "Dear Love: It seems like years since I saw you last, dear. I'm so worried about you and your family troubles. I hope her trouble isn't serious—poor, brave woman, my heart aches for her. Be kind to her, darling. Surely in the fullness of our love we cannot be less than kind—we have everything and she is nothing."

"I know your time is limited if she is ill, but surely you can steal a few moments for the little girl who loves you so. You'll never, never know how much I suffer when you are home, dear. I picture to myself your home, you three at different times of the day—meal time, evening, morning, everything, every hour. She calls you 'dear,' she touches you."

"Darling, dare you ever dream of suffering more than I? Try to imagine yourself in my position. Would your heart ache, dear?"

"I doof, doo, doo lobe o! Dood oot Your true blue, Ethel."

That Sweet Tweet Letter. And still another: "Precious One: I'm terribly, terribly tired, but almost happy. Knew why? Cause I had a sweet tweet letter from you, my darling."

"O, I love you, sweet. I love you, love you, I love you more and more each day. It brings us closer together, our suffering, don't you know it? I want you so badly. I miss your dear arms about me, your love, your good-night kisses."

"God bless you, my own true love. Never will I through any action or suffering, don't you know it? I want you so badly. I miss your dear arms about me, your love, your good-night kisses."

"I hope your little matrimonial home is sailing on smooth waters since her return. You must be good, Carl, and treat her right from now on. As always, 'Pluff' (Onawa, Ia.)."

Another Letter Gone Wrong. Likewise Mrs. Helen M. Watson read a letter, or several letters. Wherefore? "Watson, representing her, resides at 2514 Sheffield avenue, was granted by Judge Kersten a divorce from Carl C. Watson, a Sioux City, Ia., traveling salesman."

Here is one of the letters that her attorney, Frank A. Lasley, showed the court:

"Dear Carl: Am coming to Sioux City next Sunday morning. Do you think you can meet me there? I started to school last Monday and am getting along fine with my work. This is certainly a lonesome old town. My school work takes up a good deal of my time—that's one good thing. But I am willing to sacrifice myself for the next six months—then I can have a few good ones, I hope."
